EDITORIAL

Dear parents,

We say good bye to one more strenuous and effort requiring year, amidst gloom, since we and our homeland had to withstand the harsh and undesired wave of terrorist attacks.

The recent wake of terrorist attempts and suicide bombings has left the nation perplexed. Such ill attempts have no justification whatsoever, the hands behind and their vested interest are being investigated and counter foiled. At the same time one hard fact haunts us all and that is why- and under what circumstances has a faction of youth opted for such in human deeds. We need to instill in them the true spirit of fast vanishing brotherhood, goodwill, self respect, respect of others and above all importance of life and positive approach towards it, be it anywhere and of anyone.

We are indeed at crossroads and need to choose the righteous path, that of self reliance, mutual respect, hard work, positive approach, progress and prosperity; a fair key to success. Lets put our hands together and seek mercy and kindness of Almighty ALLAH to give us the courage to be united and face the deplorable situation that confronts the dear homeland, as, together we can make a difference! ---- a positive one indeed.

We wish you all a happy & peaceful New Year and pray that together we make a good start and contribute the best of our potential to words the betterment of our future generation.
